

Public transport

Welcome to Zeebrugge

Belgium is known for its strong network of public transport. All the important coastal towns are connected by a single tram line. Train connections to inland destinations are offered from either the station(s) of Zeebrugge or the stations of nearby Blankenberge and Heist.

Tram:

- every 15 minutes a tram passes by the tram stop 'Strandwijk';
- to Blankenberge (10 minutes) and Ostend (45 minutes) in the direction of De Panne;
- to Knokke (15 minutes) in the other direction.

Train from Zeebrugge direct to Bruges (15 minutes):

- During July and August the railway station Zeebrugge Beach offers hourly connections to Bruges as of 7.30 a.m. The return train leaves the city on the hour.
- On weekdays (except during July and August) the railway station Zeebrugge Village offers hourly connections to Bruges as of 7.30 a.m. The return train from Bruges leaves the city on the hour.
- During weekends (except during July and August) the railway station Zeebrugge Beach offers connections to Bruges as of 7.30 a.m. every 2 hours. The return train from Bruges leaves the city every 2 hours.

Train from Heist or Blankenberge direct to Bruges (15 minutes):

- During July and August both railway stations offer connections to and from Bruges every half hour.
- From September through June both railway stations offer connections to and from Bruges every hour with trains leaving to Bruges at 10 minutes past the hour and returning at 30 minutes past the hour.
